Atiu (Enuamanu)

Home to approximately 400 proud warrior people, there are few untouched places left in the world like Atiu. Over 8 million years old, our 3rd largest island is one big adventure playground, ancient and unspoiled. Rich in culture and history, Atiu is an eco-lovers paradise.

As one of the three Southern Group islands known as Nga-Pu-Toru, Atiu attracts the spirit of the explorer. With no nightclubs, virtually no township and a couple of cafes along with precious little traffic – this is a true escape. Life is pretty much the same as it was some 25 years ago and therefore offers a really genuine insight into island living. Gardens thrive on Atiu's rich soil and on certain days the soft aroma of organically grown coffee beans roasting wafts past from plantations that produce some of the best Arabica coffee in the Pacific.

Atiu is only a quick 45-minute flight from Rarotonga with Air Rarotonga.

What's unique about Atiu?

Tropical paradise, without all the tourists

Although an island of astonishing beauty and easy access, few visitors venture to this fascinating place. This keeps Atiu off the beaten track and completely without the trappings of commercialism.

Lush nature and vibrant bird life

A perfect place for those who like to explore. Stunning limestone caves, vibrant bird life, culture and folklore, are some of what you have to look forward to.

Unspoilt and unhurried

This is an island waiting to be discovered. It is the perfect sanctuary from a busy world.

Small makes it so special

Locals are proud that life is still pretty much as it were 25 years ago, thereby offering travellers yearning for something untouched and genuine, the very special experience they seek.
