Safety Tips in the Cook Islands

While we strive to ensure a safe and enjoyable experience for all visitors, it's essential to be aware of a few safety considerations.

General Safety Tips

- Stay Vigilant: Be mindful of your surroundings and take precautions against petty crime. Keep valuables secure, avoid walking alone at night, and be aware of your surroundings in public areas.
- Don't drink and drive: The Cook Islands has a zero-tolerance policy for drunk driving. Plan ahead by designating a driver or using a taxi service if you plan to consume alcohol.
- Be aware of the weather conditions: The Cook Islands' weather can be unpredictable. Before embarking on outdoor activities like hiking or swimming, check the forecast and dress appropriately.
- Respect the local customs: Show respect for the local culture by dressing modestly in public, avoiding public nudity, and refraining from excessive public displays of affection.

IN CASE OF AN EMERGENCY, DIAL 999 IMMEDIATELY
